

THE KEMPE CENTER

FOR THE PREVENTION & TREATMENT OF CHILD ABUSE & NEGLECT

TRAUMA-RESPONSIVE IMPLEMENTATION & PRACTICE (TRIP) PROGRAM IN SCHOOLS

Since 2008, TRIP has developed, implemented, and disseminated evidence-based approaches to help organizations become more trauma-responsive. TRIP offers fully funded, tailored interventions and training in trauma-responsive practice, diversity-informed approaches, reflective and restorative practices, and cultural responsiveness.

CONTACT

✉ emily.2.stern@cuanschutz.edu

🌐 kempecenter.org

Aurora, Colorado

Evelin Gómez, PhD, LPC
Program Director
Associate Professor

Angèle Fauchier, PhD
Associate Professor

Emily Stern, MA, CAS, NCC, LPC
Program Coordinator

SERVICES OFFERED

- Professional development that is engaging and meaningful
- Research-backed resources aligned with trauma-responsive and restorative strategies
- Customized assessments to determine areas of opportunity
- Strategy development for immediate implementation
- Ongoing coaching and technical assistance

IMPLEMENTATION OUTCOMES

- Increased resilience in the workforce
- Focus on staff wellness and a reduction in staff turnover
- Cultural responsiveness and authentic inclusion
- Active child, youth, family, and community partnerships
- Classrooms that nurture effective routines and enhanced relationships, retaining students within learning environment

staff members are 4x more likely to feel supported by leadership

staff report 4x
increase in having the necessary
supports

100% of attendees
agree they will use techniques in their roles

100% of attendees
state
strategies help students & teachers